

Schools & young people

Respect in Relationships

FREE event at Fed Square (at the big screen)

Thursday 25 November

A dedicated hour for schools and young people at 11.00am

This year, Fed Square will host an even more dynamic White Ribbon Day with an event especially organised for young people (14-18 years).

Schools and young people are invited to participate in a session focusing on respect in relationships.

Comedian Nelly Thomas will showcase segments from the acclaimed 'NO Means NO' show that focuses on building good relationships based on equality and mutual respect.

We will get to see a demo of 'Love: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly' relationships website on the big screen.

Plus, lots more with special guests including an appearance from The X Factor's Ashlee Bell Chambers accompanied by singer/guitarist Nick .

Competitions and prizes to be won!

The day also features special segments for local government, sporting organizations, unions, emergency services, Indigenous communities and interfaith groups. 'Walk Against Violence' will arrive in the Square at 12.30 We will be joined by entertainers Greg Champion and the former choir of Hard Knocks. A whole day of events from 10am-7.30pm

For more info about the youth segment contact:

Kiri Bear kbear@dvrcv.org.au

For more info re the not1more event contact: wstracke@asuvic.com

The “NO Means No” Show

...addressing serious issues with comedy

Created and directed by Nelly Thomas

The No Means No Show is a spin-off from the CASA House Sexual Assault Prevention Program for Secondary Schools (SAPPSS).

The content of the show is respectful and appropriate. Through sensitive, engaging comedy they explore common scenarios, social situations and myths, raising awareness of rights and responsibilities in relation to sexual assault.

“It conveyed a message well and it was also hilarious and entertaining. Funniest stand up I’ve ever seen”

Year 9 student

“They made learning about consent humorous” Year 9 student

Dating and being in love can be exciting – but at times it can be totally confusing. We help you work out where your relationship is at – whether it’s good, bad, or ugly.

Check it out at the brand new website
lovegoodbadugly.com

Photo from flickr by KayVee.INC CC 2.0 BY NC SA